Honorary Degree Recipients

Karen Collier Flewelling '64

Changing lives through education, philanthropy and international volunteer work are the hallmarks of Karen Collier Flewelling. Her efforts for positive transformation have brought clean water to dozens of impoverished communities across the globe.

After graduating from SUNY Cortland, and over the course of a 36-year career, Flewelling helped guide thousands of young lives as a physical education teacher and field hockey coach at Shaker High School in Latham, N.Y. She was inducted into the athletic halls of fame of both the North Colonie School District and Shaker High School.

In retirement, Flewelling became an enthusiastic volunteer with the Earthwatch Institute, championing the cause of environmental conservation and traveling to save endangered species around the globe. Those trips sensitized her to the plight of families in the underdeveloped world. She then dedicated herself to transforming the lives of those families, mainly by providing remote, rural communities with dependable sources of clean, fresh water.

Since 2005, Flewelling has made two dozen trips to 14 countries to personally work on water projects that have resulted in the drilling or repair of 40 community wells. Sales of a book she wrote about her quest, Drilling for Hope, along with a website of the same name, have helped raise thousands of dollars. In addition to wells, filters and cisterns, the funds have paid for dozens of life-changing surgeries and helped strengthen community sustainability by providing livestock, medical equipment and school supplies.

Richard J. Pollack '77

As president and chief executive officer of the American Hospital Association, Richard J. Pollack heads the nation's most influential organization that advocates for hospitals, rehabilitation centers and related institutions. In this role, he has championed the right of all Americans to quality health care and helped shape national health care policies for the elderly, children, low-income families, veterans and residents of underserved rural and urban areas. Pollack has successfully battled large insurance and pharmaceutical companies to promote the interests of hospitals and patients and influenced passage of the historic Affordable Care Act.

Modern Healthcare magazine regularly names Pollack in its annual list of the "100 Most Influential People in Healthcare," an honor he shares with President Barack Obama and the leaders of some of the world's largest corporations.

Pollack graduated from SUNY Cortland with a major in political science and a minor in speech communications and went to work as legislative assistant to former U.S. Rep. David Obey of Wisconsin. After earning a master's degree in public administration from American University, he became a lobbyist for the American Nurses Association, representing all registered nurses in the United States.

In 1982, Pollack was hired as associate director of legislative affairs for the American Hospital Association, which represents nearly 5,000 institutions. During his 34-year career with the organization, he established himself as the primary voice of the association before Congress, executive branch agencies and the news media.

Academic Traditions

ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The processional begins with the all-college gonfalonier, who leads in the faculty, followed by the schools of arts and sciences, education and professional studies gonfaloniers, who lead in the students. The processional concludes when the mace bearer brings in the platform party, which consists of members of the College's administration and faculty leadership, the College Council, visiting dignitaries and honorees.

THE MACE

The mace is a ceremonial staff used as a symbol of authority. The mace bearer precedes the platform party and places the mace on a special stand where it remains while the official proceedings of Commencement are underway. SUNY Cortland's mace, the "Torch of Learning," is made of silver and rosewood and was created by local silversmith John Marshall.

THE GONFALONS

The four bright banners carried in the academic procession are called gonfalons. The red, white, black and grey gonfalon represents the College; in blue, grey and burgundy it represents the School of Arts and Sciences; in blue, purple and black it represents the School of Education; and in peach and green it represents the School of Professional Studies.

The gonfalons were designed by Libby Kowalski, professor emerita of art and art history, and Kathy Maher, a 1984 SUNY Cortland graduate. The standards were made by Bard Prentiss, associate professor emeritus of art and art history, and J. Eric Kroot. Materials were provided by the Gilbert and Mary Cahill Foundation and the late Rozanne M. Brooks, distinguished teaching professor emerita of sociology/anthropology.

REGALIA

Commencement lends itself to the pageantry of an academic procession rooted in medieval times. The gowns and hoods worn by faculty members, candidates for graduation and platform dignitaries distinguish the institution from which the wearer was or will be graduated, the level of the degree earned and the field of learning.

In 1985, American colleges established a standard code of academic dress, specifying three types of gowns. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves, the gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve with the front part cut in an arc, and the gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves. The doctoral gown also is trimmed in velvet. The hood's inner lining, which folds out at the back and center, indicates the colors of the institution granting the degree, while the border, which comes around to the front of the neck, represents the field of learning.

The black mortarboard cap is standard. Its only distinguishing feature is a gold tassel worn by holders of the doctoral degree.

THE HONORS MEDALLION

The graduates wearing silver medallions with red ribbons have completed the SUNY Cortland Honors Program. To complete the Honors Program, a student must take 24 credit hours of honors courses, engage in 40 hours of community service, maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.2, and complete an honors thesis during his or her senior year.

THE KENTE STOLE

The Kente stole is a rich, multicolored, handwoven style of cloth that originated in Ghana, West Africa, and is revered throughout the African world. It is traditionally worn during important national ceremonies. The colors, patterns and ideogrammatic images of the Kente stole impart information about the wearer and highlight the importance of an event or a ceremony. Similar to the academic hood, the Kente stole is relatively new to commencement ceremonies in the United States and signifies and symbolizes higher education's connection to the rich cultures, intellectual traditions and academic achievements of the African world.

SPECIAL PERSON DESIGNATION

All graduates can designate a special person who has been instrumental in helping them achieve their higher education goals. This individual's name is read along with the graduate's name as he or she walks across the stage at the Commencement ceremony. Students who choose to name a special person do so when they apply for their degree.

INTERNATIONAL FLAG PRESENTATIONS

Graduating students representing countries from around the world have the opportunity to present their national flag to the president during the Commencement ceremony. In the past, flags representing Australia, Azerbaijan, Belize, Canada, China, Colombia, Cyprus, France, Ghana, Grenada, Haiti, India, Ireland, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Kenya, Lebanon, Nepal, Peru, Poland, Republic of Congo, South Korea, Sweden, Thailand, The Gambia, Turkey and the United Kingdom were received. Flags are displayed on stage during the ceremony and afterward they are exhibited in the lobby of Corey Union.

Alma Mater

*By lofty elm trees shaded round,
Tioughnioga near,
Our grand old Cortland College stands,
To all of us how dear!
We'll sing to thee, dear Alma Mater,
Of love that shall never die,
We'll strive for thy glory eternal,
Keep thy stainless honor high.
Inspiring each son and each daughter
The noblest aims to try,
All thy fame and thy spirit,
Thy might are ours
As the swift years hurry by.*
